KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

FATHER THOMAS G LORIGAN COUNCIL 7027

WE ARE KNIGHTS, WE ARE PRO-LIFE!

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

Brother Knights In Christ:

The month of November has finally come. The month of November represents the spiritual warrior and acts as a mirror this month reflecting that the battle always lies within our self. A time to remain mindful concentrating on our spiritual needs.

Thanksgiving is approaching which is one of America's most treasured holidays and traditions. Thanksgiving gives us an opportunity to gather with friends and family members.

Another holiday is Veterans Day, observed annually on November 11, which honors military veterans who served in the United States Armed Forces.

We celebrate All Saints' Day to honor all the saints, particularly those who do not have their own special feast day, on November 1st.

The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. The entire month of November falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time and is represented by the liturgical color green.

Once again natural disasters are affecting us here in Florida, as well as the lives of members and their families in neighboring communities. Hurricane Michael in the Gulf of Mexico had a strong and devastating impact on the Florida Panhandle region. So, what do we do as Knights of Columbus? The best way for you to help at this moment is to first, pray for the people impacted and second, take up a collection. Any funds collected on behalf of disaster relief should be sent through our Florida K of C Charities, Inc., non-profit association.

The Knights has provided assistance to those affected by the recent Category 4 hurricane as Indiana Knights travel to Florida to help with Hurricane Michael cleanup. In Albany, Ga., soup kitchen serves community thanks to K of C contributions after Hurricane Michael. Knights of Columbus members are providing food, water and sending supplies by the truckload to help the victims of Hurricane Michael in Florida and Georgia. The Knights respond with manpower and commitment in facing challenge to get volunteer help after Hurricane Michael. And on October 14, 2018 at our Knights of Columbus Breakfast, we provided free breakfast to the victims affected by Hurricane Michael and also free breakfast for everyone as donations only as proceeds go to Hurricane Michael Relief Fund towards our Florida panhandle area. With everybody's generosity, we receive donations totaling $1,000.

On October 28, 2018 at our Corporate Communion Mass at 8:00am was represented a donation of $20,000 to the Pregnancy Resource Center. In which $10,000 was donated from Fall Festival proceeds from our church and our council match the church's donation of $10,000.

The Knights of Columbus council goals is sponsoring council activities, by providing assistance to the Catholic Church, by doing charitable work in the communities where we exist. Rendering aid and assistance to its sick, disabled and needy members and their families. Promoting and conducting education, charitable, religious, social welfare and public relief work. Thus, the Order is considered a Catholic, Family, Fraternal, and Service Organization.

My Brothers Knights, I want thank you all for volunteering your time, your hard work and dedication to Charity as this would not be possible without you.

I want to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving and Happy Veterans Day.

Your Brother In Christ,
Cesar Mascardo

DEACON'S TEACHING By Deacon Chris Christopher

Can Individuals Receive Special Revelations From God?

Like many biblical characters, the ancient Israelite judge Gideon acted on on a personal revelation he received from God (Jgs. 6:11-40). The stories of such special revelations are now an important part of what is called the "public" revelation of God to the Church, which includes sacred Scripture and sacred Tradition – a deposit of faith that we must take as our norm of belief (2 Tm 1:14).

"In times past, god spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he spoke to us through a son" (Heb 1:1-2). Jesus Christ, the Son of God made man, is the Father's one, perfect, definitive Word, which can never be surpassed. In Christ, God has said it all. So the heritage of faith, given in Christ and contained in Scripture and Tradition, is complete. We expect no new public revelation until Jesus Christ returns to earth.

Over the course of centuries, however, the Church has gradually come to understand the meaning of that complete revelation more deeply. From this deposit, handed down by the apostles and their successors, the teaching office (magisterium) of the Church draws everything that it proposes to us for our belief as being divinely revealed. Catholics are obliged to accept this public revelation of God.

Do special revelations still come to individuals from heaven? The Church certainly allows for that possibility. At times she has even authoritatively recognized such messages, as with the appearances of our Lady to St. Bernadette at Lourdes. But these "private" revelations, as they are called, do not belong to the deposit of faith. Their role is not to add to or improve Christ's definitive revelation, but to help believers live it more fully in a specific period of history.

For that reason, though the Church may recommend particular private revelations as worthy of acceptance, Catholics are not bound to assent to these in the same way they would place their faith on sacred Scripture and Tradition. At the same time, Catholics should exercise caution toward alleged "revelations" that have not yet been approved by the Church. And they must firmly reject as false any that offer a different gospel" (Gal 1:6-9), claiming to surpass or correct the deposit of faith given in Christ.

Next month we'll look at: What is the Second Coming?

WE ARE KNIGHTS, WE ARE PRO-LIFE!

Culture of Life by Dan Arndt — prolifeman53@gmail.com

We like to plan for the next three months. So we would like you all to mark your calendar's for January 2019. January was the month that they decided to make it legal to abort/destroy unborn children. After 45 years they have been able to destroy life to a number of about 60 million. So for these 45 years they have conducted a "March for Life " in Washington DC. If you want to be truly inspired, then plan a trip to DC January 18. If you want something closer you can join a "March for Life " in St Augustine on January 12 or even closer, you can join the Emerald Coast coalition in Pensacola on January 12. The main speaker will be Dr Alveda King who is the niece of Martin Luther King.

The next few months we should commit to a fundraiser for the Pregnancy Resource Center of Milton. We need one not only to raise funds, but raise awareness for Pregnancy Resource Centers and Life. Life of the unborn child. Supreme has put us on a new track with Life. We are called into service in new ways. As mentioned we are involved with Marches for Life and Pregnancy Center support, but we need help with some new recommended programs. Here is a list:

- Special Olympics
- Mass for People with Special Needs
- Novena for Life

This is an important time. Let's do our part to help Life.

Greetings and Blessings Sir Knights

First and Foremost our prayers and continued support go out to all those affected by Hurricane Michael. I know many Sir Knights and their families have spent their time, talent, and treasure providing material and spiritual support. Thus I applaud all for what they have done and continue to help as people recover, rebuild and move forward.

October. Both the month as well as Oktoberfest are now behind us. Many thanks to all those Knights and Ladies who made it a fun event, whose spirit of Gemütlichkeit was felt throughout and not dampened by the brief wet weather. Ein Prosit! To all who came and enjoyed.

12 November Milton Veterans Day Parade. Color Corp Commander John Recke is the Contact for this event. All Sir Knights are welcome to March, Regalia is appreciated and helps identify who we are.

That being noted, any Sir Knight is welcome. As in previous years, we will meet at the Parish Hall Parking lot 8:30 am on Monday, the Buss will leave at 8:40 to drop everyone off at Milton High, and will be waiting at the end of the Parade to bring all back.

With such a busy first part of the month, I hope that Thanksgiving day finds you thankful and humbled by all the blessing received, prayerfully remembering those who have passed on to Judgement, and are no longer with us, as we continue on our pilgrim journey. Until our next appointed meeting, 15 November

Faith in Action

George Elliott

Deputy Grand Knight/Program Director

You are important and we need you. Whether you've been a member of the Knights of Columbus for sixty minutes or sixty years (or more), you are vitally important to who we are and what we do. We, your local council and your worldwide order, need you. We need your prayers, your talents, your time, your moral support, and your ideas. It's totally up to you to participate at whatever level you are comfortable with. I hope you never feel like you do too little or that you do too much. Know that you always have the support and appreciation of our whole organization.

As we ramp up with the recently-introduced Faith In Action program, we have an opportunity to take a new look at what service programs our council conducts. Because you are an important part of who we are, I want to personally invite you to give your input. I would really like to know what you think about which activities are important, what things we do well, and what we can improve. For example, please tell me if you think our meetings are too short. (I said it's an example, not necessarily a valid one.)

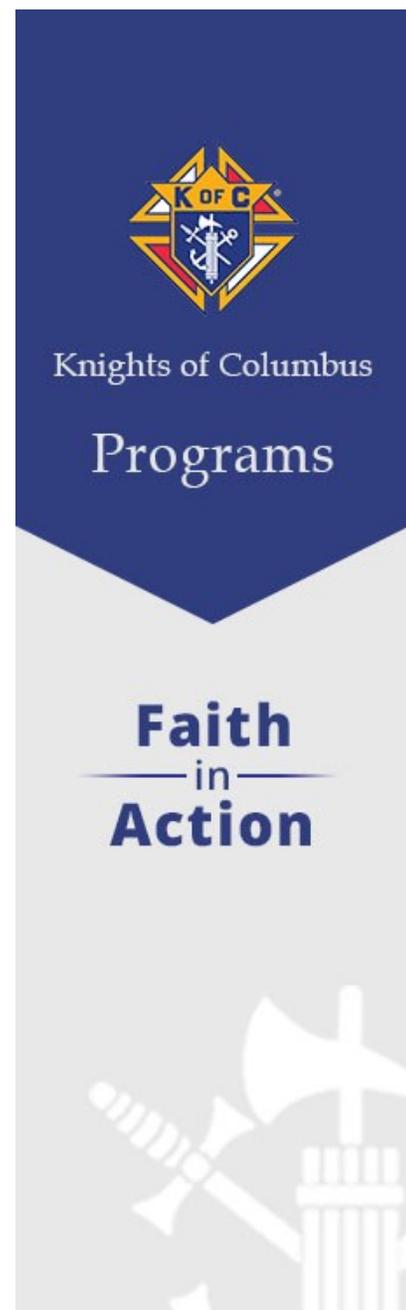

Please tell me which activities are particularly meaningful to you, and if there are any programs you would like to be more involved in. For too long, some of our committees have been one-man committees consisting of only a chairman. We can be more effective in our service areas of Faith, Family, Community, and Life if we have more participation of our members in those areas.

For these reasons, I'm asking you to fill out and turn in the Member/Prospect Interest Survey (newsletter page 14). With the information you provide, we can try to conduct activities in line with your talents, desires, and interests. If you've filled-out one of these forms in the past, please do it again to make it current.

Once you have completed the survey, there are several ways you can submit it. You could mail it to the council (Knights of Columbus Council 7027, PO Box 951, Milton, FL 32572), e-mail it to me (grejr13@gmail.com), hand it to a council officer at Mass, or (my favorite) bring it to our next meeting. I'll have additional copies at our next council meeting on Thursday, November 8.

Please take full advantage of this opportunity to shape our council's future. Tell us what you think is important. Tell us, for example, if you would be interested in receiving text message announcements of council events.

I sincerely look forward to your input. As always, thank you for all you do, and thank you for being an important part of the Knights of Columbus.

Vivat Jesus!

Faith In Action – FAMILY

Joe Burgos, Director of Family

This November is the month chosen by the Supreme Council to spotlight the program called Family Fully Alive. This program aims to help each family to place God and the Catholic faith at the center of their lives. This is in support of the call of Pope Francis to “protect the beauty and truth of the family in God’s plan and to be an example for other families” (Pope Francis, Address to Families, Philippines, 2015).

This program is indeed very timely with the torment and havoc wreaked by Hurricane Michael. We have witnessed how victim family members, despite massive loss of homes and prized possessions, drawing and finding strength from each other; how their families, who by themselves struggled to survive, would reach out to help other affected families in even worse condition. Together they, with countless others, are bound by the common resolve to rebuild.

In my view, this is a classic example of the “beauty and truth of the family” referred above. I urge our brother knights, and their families, to take the lead in replicating this and bringing into fruition what God has planned of and for the family.

Congratulations to our newsletter editor Brother Ralph Crago in having launched a secured access portal for our local council. This is a milestone as this will open up brighter opportunities in strengthening and providing stability to our council.

As explained by Brother Ralph in our last meeting, this portal primarily aims to provide the option of secured financial transaction (such as payment of dues, ticket sales, etc.) thru PayPal. The most promising harbinger is to house an online directory of all our council members. The organizational directory, whether printed or online, is the quickest and friendliest way of knowing who officially comprise the group.

The directory will showcase skills, preferences and accomplishments of individual members, which will enable the council to tap their strength and potential – resulting in greater participation and involvement.

This will introduce us to the family of the council member - hopefully to serve as core in the Consecration of the Holy Family/Family Fully Alive programs.

The Vatican has a directory; the Supreme Council has it; the State Council has it; even our very own St. Rose of Lima parish now has a directory. With this portal, isn’t it time we have one?

Also raised in the meeting was a very valid question: “What are the criteria in the Family of the Month selection?” The Faith in Action guidebook has given us the following:

- “Is the family tight-knit? Does the family spend quality time together?
- Does the family attend weekly Mass together? Does the family pray together outside of Mass?
- Has the family made significant contributions to the parish and church community?
- Does the family serve as model of Catholic family values?”

Whether or not the criteria are complete will be left for the committee to decide.

Kudos to the winners for the month of October:

- Family of the Month — Jim and Marianne Richardson
- Knight of the Month — Bruce Donatelli

Thank you St. Rose for all you have done for Blountstown! Fr. Schamber thanks you very much too for helping to serve his community! Blessings to all who helped and a HUGE Thank you to 'Two Men and a Truck' and Greg Micklos on their selfless love of serving others!

Our team packed up another truck thanks to St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church, Milton, Fl. and headed out early this morning to Blountstown for delivery. Their are still so many of our neighbors without. Every bit helps! (FaceBook 10/23/2018)

"The needs are so great in the wake of Hurricane Michael! This great priest, Fr. Richard Schamber is setting up his church as a distribution center for food, water, supplies at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, Blountstown. He is selflessly giving all of his time to setting this up to help his community. After spending the weekend helping to clear debris the impact to the community is clearly devastating, yet many from the parish were helping yesterday and today despite having lost so much. So many without homes, or without work in a community that is already struggling. Keep these people in your prayers and keep sending aid there way." Aine Canning (FaceBook 10/20/2018 2:43 PM)
